New Business:

1. Ice Skating Ring/Hockey Rink – David Grubb (member of the Community Center Committee) advised Commission Board that the Committee was unsure as to why the Ice Skating/Hockey Rink was denied. The Committee has received various donations to have this project come into fruition and they feel as if this would be a great part of the Community Center. Grubb also explained that there is a Commissioner that sits in that committee and 2 City Employees that should be able to give the Commission Board more information. Salinas explained that the information was given to the Commission Board and that the Ice-Skating rink was not denied at previous meeting, the Commission Board was just wanting to have more information given. Nathen Gremundson stated that he felt that the Commission has tasked them to do a job for the City and they working hard to provide the City with a Community Center that has as much amenities as possible. Germundson also stated that there is a sub-committee that has been formed to help with raising funds and collecting donations which will help pay for some of the items that will be going into the Community Center. McClelland gave a rundown of what is currently going into the Community Center. Discussions held.
Sundhagen made a motion to approve the ice-skating/hockey rink in the amount of $120,831.46 from change order #5, second by Christianson. Call: Ayes; Christianson, Sundhagen, McClelland
